

Physics in My Village Call

Terms & Conditions

for Material Submitters and Competitors

Material Submitter Non-Competition

1. Individuals and teams can submit materials, videos or posters without necessarily choosing to participate in the Competition.
2. There is no limit to the number of submissions for those submitting video clips and posters but do not want to be considered for a prizes

Submission for Competition to be considered for a Prize

3. Individuals and teams can also submit videos or posters to be entered into a competition for a prizes
4. The SAIP staff and engaged student-volunteers are not allowed to enter the Competition.
5. Competitors can enter the Competition as individuals or in a team.
6. The Competition is in two categories, video clips and posters. Individuals/teams can only have one competition entry per category. That is a maximum of only one poster to be considered for Competition and a maximum of only one video to be considered for Competition.
7. Individuals or teams can choose to enter the Competition at five levels which are, school learner, undergraduate, postgraduate, researcher/academic or general public
8. Submission will only be made via WhatsApp (066 182 0629) or on the website using this link: <http://www.saip.org.za/Physicsinmyvillage/index.php/shareyourstory>

Conditions applicable to both submitters and competitors

9. Material submitters/ competitors give consent to SAIP to include and edit their submissions for the combined documentary on Physics in my Village, and the SAIP will, in turn, give full credit to content creators whose materials will be selected for use.
10. Materials submitters/competitors may be approached for further interviews and involvement with the project and documentary filming and production
11. No late submission will be allowed. The closing date is 25 June 2021.